Dear Senator [Senator's Last Name],

I am writing to bring to your attention a pressing issue affecting our community and many others nationwide—the significant backlog in R-1 visa processing for religious workers. This delay has led to dedicated individuals, who contribute immensely to our spiritual and social well-being, facing the prospect of leaving the country due to circumstances beyond their control.

For instance, in our congregation, [Briefly describe a specific example of how the R-1 visa backlog has impacted your community or organization]. This situation not only disrupts our religious activities but also undermines the support systems that many rely upon.

Notably, senators from other states have recognized the severity of this issue and have taken steps to address it. We earnestly request that you advocate for expedited processing of R-1 visas and collaborate with your colleagues to find a swift resolution. Your support is vital to ensure that those who serve our communities can continue their invaluable work without undue hindrance.

Furthermore, we respectfully request that any feedback, insights, or actions taken on this issue be directly communicated to Secretary of State, Marco Rubio's office, as he plays a crucial role in addressing this matter at a national level. Coordinating efforts with his office will help ensure a unified and effective response to resolving this urgent problem.

Thank you for your attention to this critical matter. I appreciate your leadership and willingness to support religious workers who make invaluable contributions to our communities.

Sincerely,
